COLONIAL THEATRE

Parle of Pauline, Mammoth Two-Real Event Feature Today.

Ever since Pauline had the escape on the motor car, in the great international race, her designing friends have been planning a big stunt for her to do—and she does it today at the Colonial theatre. It is known as the greatest event of the motor race, in which the great Pauline is to be rescued from drowning by riding his motorcycle over the water into the water many feet below. It is one of those half-raised that have made this serial the greatest one in the country, but a little more thrilling if possible. Brandon's Last Ride, a big Indian two-real feature, is on today, as well as an American Hellfire, a strong Lubin picture. Monday and Tuesday is the wonder drama in seven reels telling of Ireland's struggle for liberty. It is entitled Ireland's Fight for Liberty. It is made wholly in Ireland. Throughout the entire seven reels beauty and interest abound, and there is not a dull moment. Reserved seats are on sale at the box office Saturday for the two days.

TODAY

Coming to Davis Theatre.
The extravagant tastes of women, which go far beyond anything that their husbands' incomes can satisfy, has led to the destruction of many a happy home, but not until the sensational appearance of today had this menace been brought home to the hearts of fashionable New York society. This striking drama, which will be seen at the Davis theatre Wednesday evening, Nov. 25th, ran for an entire season at the Forty-eighth street theatre, New York, where throngs nightly laughed and cried at the moving spectacle of metropolitan life depicted before their spellbound eyes. From its first production today it has created a furore of excitement because of the fact that it broke through the crust of calm and peace that masks the turmoil of so many society women's souls, and showed what a horrible disaster could occur through the wish to keep up appearances.

It has long been a contention of European writers commenting on New York life, that it was the heedless extravagance of women that so often drove their husbands to suicide and ruin, but how thoughtful could be the result of a woman's love of dress to obtain—has never before been shown. There is no woman in the world that this play has recognized as the most potent influence to deal with this evil that has never been seen on the stage.

Today is the combined product of George Broadhurst and Abraham Schaefer, and has been staged in most lavish manner by the Manuscript Producing company, Harry Von Tilzer managing director. The cast that has been selected is an admirable one, including such well known actors as Hallett Thompson, Arthur Hackett, Marie Richard, Anton Ascher, Marie Burke, Arthur J. Wood, Marie Dantes, Sarah Hubbard and Frank Stone.

Seats on sale Monday at 10 a. m. Mail orders with remittance filled in the order of receipt.

CHELSEA BOAT CLUB'S BALL

Advance Sale of Tickets Points to a Very Large Attendance on Thanksgiving Night.

The advance sale of tickets for the Chelsea Boat Club's ball at the army in Thanksgiving night points to a very large attendance. The preliminary exposition of the new dances by Joseph D. Devine and partner will be one of the features of the social function. They will appear in three different parts of the dance program in the middle of the first half they will show the one-step and the full armless tango. In the middle of the last half of the program the hostess will be exemplified. Mr. Devine is a very graceful dancer and his exhibition will be a delight to the eye. Invitations to ball clubs in neighboring cities are expected, bringing a good sized representation of members to enjoy the hospitality of the local club. Drew's full orchestra will give a concert program from 8 to 9 o'clock and will also play for the dancing from 9 to 1 o'clock.

Hartford—Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Farrall will celebrate the 10th anniversary of their wedding November 17.

ROUNDED UP TEN IN OLD SAYBROOK RAID

Five Families Gathered In by State Police on Liquor Violation Charge.

The state police made a big raid in Old Saybrook Wednesday evening as a result of which ten members of five families were brought before Judge Houston London in the town hall at 7.30 p. m. All were charged with selling liquor without a license. Their fines were present ready to pay their fines, which with costs amounted to $124.75 apiece for the five men and $144.75 apiece for the five women, a total of $794.75. The accused asked for postponement. All were put under bonds of $200 each and were released to appear Tuesday, Nov. 24, at 10 a. m. Assistant State Attorney Charles A. Lunt of Clinton prosecuted the cases and Italian friends went on their bonds.

State Policemen Flynn, Bridgman, Wheeler, Jackson and Bellows made the arrests, assisted by Deputy Sheriff Smith of Essex. The charges were actual sale. The women were not brought to court, but the men were locked up in the old County house. John Dandies, Louis Morand, Alfred Mazzini, Massimo Tulinella of the Perry district and Oddo Lassar, who resides in the old County house. The state police arrested over 30 Italians a year ago Thursday in that town. They were charged with selling liquors, wines and beer, more than the law allows, and in the majority of cases for actual sale. All of them paid heavy fines.

FALLING OFF IN NEW LONDON PARCEL POST.

Decrease of 40 Per Cent. Over Figures of a Year Ago.

In contrast with the experiences of the New London postoffice in the parcel post business, where a constantly increasing gain is noted, the count at the New London postoffice for the first 15 days of October showed a falling off of over 40 per cent. in the parcels mailed over a similar period in 1913.

A year ago there were 5,339 packages mailed during the period; this year there were 3,354. The postage received a year ago from the mailing of the packages was $18,977. This year it was $21,452. The weight, however, increased. The total last year was 666 pounds; this year it was 10,274.

For the Norwich office the figures for the first year were 4,338 packages, weight 9,775 pounds, postage paid $23,854.

According to the New London office, the decrease is principally due to the fact that very few samples have been sent out by certain local manufacturers. This caused a marked falling off in the number of parcels mailed, together with the receipts for postage. The average weight of parcels mailed increased slightly, from 16.5 pounds to 17.5 pounds.

The heaviest parcel mailed from the New London office this year between Oct. 1 and 15 weighed 34 pounds.

Of the total number of packages mailed at the New London office, 28 were for delivery in the city. To the city delivery 27, to the country 2,008, third class 446, fourth 178, first 143, sixth 68, seventh 15, and eighth 13. These figures show the system extends.

While there were 3,510 parcel post packages received at the Norwich office for delivery, in New London the number was 5,875.

These figures distributed as follows: General delivery window and post-office boxes 1,213, city carriers on regular trips 1,001, rural carriers 150, special delivery 27, regular carrier making special trips 172, automobiles 2,427, horse drawn vehicle 289.

These figures show that 293 insured ones were mailed in New London. The number of packages received during the period a year ago was 4,659, showing a gain of 1,006.

Philadelphia's yearly loss because of rats is estimated at $1,000,000.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

WHEN CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of his little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grownups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, look at the label. It is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Political Gossip. There is reason to believe that Governor-elect Holcomb will enter upon the duties of his office on the 1st of January. He has just filed his statement of campaign costs, as required by law, and has been elected by a large majority.
